Dear John,

I had a very fine visit with Paul Marks. Apparently you paved the way to Paul. When he informed me that the space situation will not be clarified on his next (at least a year), I agreed to cooperate ^{for one year} by arranging for space at Ortho. (This is going slowly because (1) it is summer vacation time and (2) heads have fallen also at Ortho. Fortunately I am making headway with my comprehensive paper on The Self-Resolving Concept to embrace my 1939 and my 1951 publications etc.

And so enjoy your vacation and I look forward to see you in Sept.

Phil

P.S. Paul understood why it is important for me (or anybody) to function in an atmosphere of highly creative colleagues
